Kimberly D. Lawrence

Attorney

iamkimberly@tilawgroup.com

Kimberly offers corporate sector and asset protection expertise. With a true passion for estate and asset protection, Kimberly advises to ensure that individuals and families protect the life that they set out to build.

Primarily focused on advising business clients and counseling families through wealth and estate planning, Kimberly guides clients through transitions, growth and ultimately to peace of mind. Kimberly brings a wealth of knowledge to businesses engaged in labor and employment. Her knowledge is based on her experience working for multiple nationally recognized corporations including Fortune 500 listed Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc. where Kimberly worked in compliance and partnered with General Counsel on several trials. From workplace development to employee separation, she provides clients comprehensive advisement to maintain a healthy and legally compliant workplace.

Her engagement in asset acquisition such as developing residential and estate portfolios fosters her attention to detail for building and protecting clients' assets. Through a dedicated wealth and estate planning process, Kimberly identifies and fashions estate plans to maximize each client's economic position and objective.

Amongst business matters and estate planning, Kimberly also offers general advice to a wide range of matters including property, family, mediation, negotiation and litigation. Whether business or individual, she cultivates an individualized advisory approach for each client.
